

NATARAJA

- THE DANCE SOCIETY

NATARAJA - the dance society of YMCAUST, Faridabad was started for the students of YMCAUST to overcome the inhibition of public stage performances. Nataraja comprises of two groups, first being the western and other one bhangra, which together are responsible for the healthy organisation and choreography of every dance event. The society aims at providing various platforms for the students both inside and outside the university. Be it elements culmyca (the annual fest) or freshers or any other college event, the society comes up with contemporary to classical, bhangra to hip hop and many more such forms. Started years back the society is growing year by year and providing various such opportunities to the students every year. Nataraja, the dancing society of the university is the club whose aim is to provide a platform to the students to showcase their love and passion to dance.
