Introduction: A club related to social activities registered in YMCA University of Science and Technology, Faridabad initiated a years ago with the thought of Swami Vivekanand –“See for the highest, aim at that highest, and you shall reach the highest”. The motto of the manch is to work for the welfare of the society.

History: Sh. Eknathji Ranade, a social acitvist started Vivekananda Kendra, a spiritually oriented service mission in 1972. For actualizing vision of Swami Vivekananda , the Kendra has more than 225 branches spread all over India to work in all phases of the society for welfare of the nation. To achieve this Vivekananda Kendra carry's out various service activities through Yoga, Swadhyay Varga (Study Circle), Samskar Varga, Rural Development, Education, Development of Natural resources and message of Swami Vivekananda, Indian Culture, Vedic studies.

MISSION:

"Man-Making and Nation Building"

"An aggregate or a congregation of men does not make a nation, nor does the geographical area but duration of time qualify a society to be known as a nation. A government formed on such former basis can be called a state, but not a nation. It is common goal or mission that makes a nation. All the constituents strive collectively for something noble. Service with spiritual orientation results in man-making which invariably and inseparably connected with nation building." It is the core of all the thoughts behind Vivekananda manch.

Organization of the Manch:

The Manch has been organized by the students themselves under the coordination and guidance of senior faculty members.
